Technical Information

In order to start receiving the feed of audio content for Drive by Funny, here is what you need to do.

Simply provide the following information to the team at Synchronicity which will get you set up to receive the content. You can fill this PDF form out in Acrobat Reader, save it and send the information via E-mail to ron@synchronicity.co or support@synchronicity.co. (Note, the e-mail address is .co NOT .com). Synchronicity will contact you to get the files into your system. Once the Synchronizer files have been installed let Synch know so they can flip the switch.
